

GOOD HOPE COUNTRY DAY SCHOOL SUMMER READING
Second Grade (2022-2023)

These books are all appropriately fun and appealing to the interests and understandings of this age group. We suggest these books be read aloud by the parent to the child first with shared discussions along the way. Please encourage subsequent re-readings by your child in order to develop confidence and independence. These books will be reviewed and responded to in Second Grade at the beginning of the school year. We ask that ALL incoming second graders read Jack and the Beanstalk and the French Fries by Mark Teague. In addition, please choose at least two more books from the list. With the exception of the first book (which is required reading), the books are organized from least difficult to most difficult. Plan to have your child bring in his/her summer reading books on Registration Day. If you loved these books and are looking for more, a wonderful source for books is the American Library Association's Annual List of Notable books: <http://www.ala.org/alsc/awardsgrants/notalists/ncb>.

Along the way, Frances discovers that sisters can indeed be friends ... maybe even best friends.

Frog and Toad Are Friends*, Arnold Lobel

From writing letters to going swimming, telling stories to finding lost buttons, Frog and Toad are always there for each other—just as best friends should be. Frog and Toad Are Friends is a Level Two I Can Read book, geared for kids who read on their own but still need a little help.

Drum Dream Girl*, Margarita Engle

Inspired by the childhood of Millo Castro Zaldarriaga, a Chinese-African-Cuban girl who broke Cuba's traditional taboo against female drummers, Drum Dream Girl tells an inspiring true story for dreamers everywhere. In her city of drum beats, she dreamed of pounding tall congas and tapping small bongós. She had to keep quiet. She had to practice in secret. But when at last her dream-bright music was heard, everyone sang and danced and decided that both girls and boys should be free to drum and dream.

Lizard from the Park, Mark Pett

When Leonard takes a shortcut through the park, he finds an egg and takes it home, where it hatches into a lizard (or so Leonard thinks). Leonard names his new pet Buster and takes him all around the city: on the subway, to the library, to a baseball game, and more. But Buster keeps growing and growing—and Leonard gets the sense that Buster is longing for something Leonard can't provide.

If Sharks Disappeared, Lily Williams

Even though sharks can be scary, we need them to keep the oceans healthy. Unfortunately, due to overfishing, many shark species are in danger of extinction, and that can cause big problems in the oceans and even on land. What would happen if this continued and sharks disappeared completely?
